

European Trip Packing List

Use this checklist to pack smart for cobblestones, cafés, and everything in between! ✓ = Check it off as you go.

■ TRAVEL DOCUMENTS & MONEY

- ☐ Passport (valid 6+ months past return date)
- ☐ Printed flight & hotel confirmations
- ☐ Travel insurance policy & emergency contact
- ☐ ETIAS authorization (if applicable)
- ☐ Credit cards with no foreign transaction fees
- ☐ Small amount of local currency (cash)
- ☐ Driver's license / International Driving Permit (if renting a car)
- ☐ Prescription copies / medical info
- ☐ Photocopy of passport (kept separate from original)

PRO TIP

Email yourself digital copies of your passport, ID, and confirmations — if anything goes missing, you'll have backup in seconds.

■ ANTI-THEFT ESSENTIALS

- ☐ Crossbody purse / bag with anti-theft features (slash-proof strap, locking zippers)
- ☐ RFID-blocking wallet or sleeve
- ☐ Money belt or hidden travel pouch for backup cash/cards
- ☐ Front-facing day bag (avoid back pockets & open totes in crowds)
- ☐ Small padlock for hotel lockers or luggage
- ☐ Decoy wallet with a little cash (optional, but smart in high-pickpocket areas)

PRO TIP

Wear your crossbody bag across your front, not your back, in crowded squares, train stations, and markets — that's where pickpockets work the hardest.

■ TECH & ELECTRONICS

- ☐ Phone + charger
- ☐ Camera + memory cards
- ☐ Headphones / earbuds
- ☐ E-reader or tablet
- ☐ European plug adapter (Type C/E/F or Type G for UK)
- ☐ Portable power bank
- ☐ Offline maps downloaded in advance

■ MISC ESSENTIALS

- ☐ Reusable water bottle (refill — many cities have public fountains)
- ☐ Compact umbrella
- ☐ Packable day bag or tote
- ☐ Stain remover pen
- ☐ Reusable shopping bag (many shops charge for bags or don't provide them)
- ☐ Outlet adapter splitter (hotel outlets are often limited)
- ☐ Earplugs / eye mask (cobblestone streets + church bells = early mornings)
- ☐ Notebook & pen
- ☐ Snacks for train rides or long travel days

■ CLOTHING & SHOES

- ☐ Comfortable walking shoes with great grip (cobblestones are no joke!)
- ☐ 1 pair broken-in sneakers + 1 dressier pair for evenings
- ☐ Layers: t-shirts, light sweaters, breathable button-downs
- ☐ 1–2 nicer outfits for fine dining or theater nights
- ☐ Versatile dress or two (day-to-night friendly)
- ☐ Lightweight scarf (chic + handy for cooler churches/cathedrals)
- ☐ Packable rain jacket
- ☐ Light cardigan or jacket for cool evenings
- ☐ Jeans or trousers (more common than shorts in many cities)
- ☐ Pajamas / loungewear
- ☐ Undergarments & socks (extra pair for wet weather days)

PRO TIP

Skip the brand-new shoes! Break them in for at least 2 weeks before you go — cobblestones and miles of walking will find every weak spot.

■ TOILETRIES & HEALTH

- ☐ Sunscreen
- ☐ Travel-size shampoo, conditioner, body wash
- ☐ Deodorant & personal care items
- ☐ Toothbrush, toothpaste, floss
- ☐ Makeup & brushes
- ☐ Hair tools (check voltage — many run on 220V, look for dual-voltage)
- ☐ Prescription medications (extra supply, in original bottles)
- ☐ Pain relievers, antacids, allergy meds
- ☐ Motion sickness remedies for trains/ferries
- ☐ Blister pads & moleskin (see clothing tip above!)
- ☐ Travel-size hand sanitizer & tissues (not all restrooms are stocked)

■ GENIUS TRAVEL HACKS & EUROPE TIPS

- ☐ Packing cubes (you'll be living out of your suitcase across multiple cities!)
- ☐ A printed list of your hotel addresses in the local language (for taxis)
- ☐ Coins or small bills set aside for pay-to-use restrooms
- ☐ Portable luggage scale (avoid surprise fees on budget flights between cities)
- ☐ Collapsible tote for souvenirs on the way home
- ☐ Translation app downloaded for offline use
- ☐ Laundry sheets or travel detergent for longer trips
- ☐ A lightweight daypack that folds flat in your suitcase
- ☐ Hand fan (many European hotels & homes don't have A/C in summer)
- ☐ Highlighter for marking your daily itinerary

PRO TIP

My #1 Europe Item: A crossbody anti-theft bag. Between train stations, markets, and packed metro cars, it's the single easiest way to travel with total peace of mind.
