

Greece Packing List

Use this checklist to pack smart for sun-soaked islands, turquoise water, and Aegean magic! ✓ = Check it off as you go.

■ TRAVEL DOCUMENTS & MONEY

- ☐ Passport (valid 6+ months past return date)
- ☐ Printed flight, ferry & hotel confirmations
- ☐ Travel insurance policy & emergency contact
- ☐ Credit cards with no foreign transaction fees
- ☐ Small amount of local currency (cash — useful for small islands & tavernas)
- ☐ Driver's license / International Driving Permit (if renting a car or scooter)
- ☐ Prescription copies / medical info
- ☐ Photocopy of passport (kept separate from original)

PRO TIP

Many small islands and water taxis are cash-preferred — keep some euros on hand for smaller transactions (Greece uses the euro).

■ ANTI-THEFT ESSENTIALS

- ☐ Crossbody purse / bag with anti-theft features (slash-proof strap, locking zippers)
- ☐ RFID-blocking wallet or sleeve
- ☐ Waterproof pouch for cash & cards on boat days
- ☐ Front-facing day bag (avoid back pockets & open totes in crowds)
- ☐ Small padlock for hotel lockers or luggage
- ☐ Decoy wallet with a little cash (optional, but smart in busy old towns)

PRO TIP

Keep valuables in a waterproof pouch on boat excursions — splashes happen, and you don't want a soggy passport mid-island-hop.

■ TECH & ELECTRONICS

- ☐ Phone + charger
- ☐ Underwater phone case or pouch (for boats & beach days)
- ☐ Camera + memory cards
- ☐ Headphones / earbuds
- ☐ European plug adapter (Type C/F for Greece)
- ☐ Portable power bank
- ☐ Offline maps & ferry schedules downloaded in advance

■ MISC ESSENTIALS

- ☐ Reusable water bottle (stay hydrated in the heat!)
- ☐ Packable beach bag / waterproof tote
- ☐ Quick-dry beach towel
- ☐ Snorkel gear (or rent at most beach spots)
- ☐ Dry bag for valuables at the beach or on boats
- ☐ Compact umbrella (brief showers happen, even in summer)
- ☐ Reusable shopping bag (handy for markets)
- ☐ Notebook & pen
- ☐ Snacks for ferry rides or long travel days

■ CLOTHING & SHOES

- ☐ Lightweight sundresses / breezy outfits
- ☐ Linen shirts & shorts (stay cool, look put-together)
- ☐ Swimsuits (at least 2 — one dries while you wear the other!)
- ☐ Cover-ups / sarongs for boat days & tavernas
- ☐ 1–2 elevated outfits for nicer dinners
- ☐ Comfortable sandals for cobbled old towns
- ☐ Water shoes (rocky beaches are common in Greece!)
- ☐ Sturdy sandals or sneakers for island hikes
- ☐ Sun hat (wide-brim packs flat)
- ☐ Light cover for boat rides (breeze + sun + spray)
- ☐ Pajamas / loungewear
- ☐ Undergarments & socks

PRO TIP

Pack a light, packable layer for boat days — it's sunny on land but the wind off the water can be surprisingly cool, especially on early ferries.

■ TOILETRIES & HEALTH

- ☐ Reef-safe sunscreen SPF 50+ (reapply often!)
- ☐ After-sun lotion / aloe vera
- ☐ Travel-size shampoo, conditioner, body wash
- ☐ Deodorant & personal care items
- ☐ Toothbrush, toothpaste, floss
- ☐ Makeup & brushes (minimal — it's a sweat-and-saltwater kind of trip!)
- ☐ Lip balm with SPF
- ☐ Prescription medications (extra supply, in original bottles)
- ☐ Pain relievers, antacids, allergy meds
- ☐ Motion sickness remedies (handy for ferries!)
- ☐ Blister pads & moleskin (for sandal rubbing on long walking days)

■ GENIUS TRAVEL HACKS & ISLAND TIPS

- ☐ Packing cubes (especially handy if you're island-hopping!)
- ☐ A printed list of your hotel/ferry addresses for taxi drivers
- ☐ Coins or small bills set aside for beach club sun loungers
- ☐ Portable luggage scale (avoid surprise fees on inter-island ferries or budget flights)
- ☐ Collapsible tote for souvenirs on the way home
- ☐ Translation app downloaded for offline use
- ☐ A lightweight daypack that folds flat in your suitcase
- ☐ Hand fan (many hotels & ferries run warm in peak summer)
- ☐ Sleep mask & earplugs for sun-up mornings and lively old towns

PRO TIP

My #1 Mediterranean Item: A quick-dry beach towel that packs down small. Between boat days, beach clubs, and pool afternoons, you'll use it more than almost anything else in your bag.

Questions before you take off? Reach out to Kasey!
kasey@dazzlinggetaways.com | 309.306.1633